

Newsletter April 22

Thirteen riders entered the March championship trial near Wensley organised by Roy Sturgeon, Alan Smith and friends. We are lucky to have the support of several landowners who make ground available for our pastime. Club night entertainment in March included the annual domino competition, 14 entering, thanks to Dave Headon and a highly entertaining quiz, with pie and peas which was well supported thanks to quiz masters Dennis Marwood and Brian Smith.

In April there is a meeting at Alston for the northern sections on the 10th and a championship trial at Chopgate. Hopefully Steve Hodgson will be organising the Spring Lamb Run - date to be confirmed

Further ahead the 45th Quaker Road Safety Run will be visiting the hills and dales of North Yorkshire, with lunch at Reeth on 22nd May. Entry forms will be available from Dave Porteous or the web site and we look forward to receiving these before the event in order to facilitate the organisation of paperwork and the buffet tea. This will be preceded by a Saturday ride with Brian Smith leading you somewhere pleasant, - as always. Gilling Championship trial on 15th.
