

Newsletter July 2020

As I write, at end of June, it is not clear whether we will be able to embark on our programme of road runs or resume club nights.

Tom Norman will announce at end of July whether the Beamish Trophy Trial can go ahead.

Some ventured for lone rides, so it was exciting to come across other like-minded individuals for a socially distance chat recently at Baldersdale and Danby Moor.

At the national level it is understood that changes in the management of the club are being investigated to match expenditure to reducing income levels. Preliminary findings of the Journal Survey (June edition) reveal that Section notes are least popular and consideration is being given to making them available by an alternative method.
